Liquor law on the ballot

Kyle voters are set to go to the polls May 12 to decide whether the city should fully permit the sale of alcohol, including mixed drinks.

The change would allow for the operation of wine bars, cocktail lounges and roadhouses in the city that has been dry or “damp” for many decades.

Supporters say approval of the referendum would also change local laws so restaurants could qualify for beer-and-wine permits from the state, instead of a more costly permit for full liquor sales. Voters first gave restaurants the OK to sell alcohol in 2007, so long as more than 51 percent of their profits came from food.

The measure will be on the Buda ballot in November.

Under current law, Kyle and Buda allow alcohol sales at restaurants, gas stations and grocery stores, and Kyle allows liquor stores while Buda does not.

But restaurants in Kyle and Buda are not eligible for a $903 beer-and-wine retailer’s permit from the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, according to TABC spokeswoman Carolyn Beck. Instead, Kyle-Buda restaurateurs must purchase a mixed beverage permit for $6,602 in addition to a food-and-beverage certificate for $776.

The political action committee Better Business for Hays funded a petition drive and marketing campaign in support of the relaxed liquor laws.

What people are saying:

Kyle has grown so much that it does not take much to drive to Austin or San Marcos to go get a drink in a bar. Kyle should not miss out on those dollars, just make sure KPD has excellent training in DWI to pull over those that decided to drink and drive.

— Gabriel Casas

I'm sure we're losing tons of money to San Marcos and Austin. I spend most of my money in Austin. I wouldn't mind keeping that in Kyle. I have followed, on several occasions, drunk drivers who were driving into Kyle from Austin. I believe it may help in reducing this problem as well.

— James Pavia

Well let the accidents be your guide! So do you want it on your conscience that you sold your city and neighbors out for just a few tax dollars! Hmm, hope you're ready to live with that! Anything for the almighty dollar, huh?!

— Jo Ann Metz

I've been waiting for this day! Can't wait to cast my vote!

— Kari Backus Wroblewski

People drink alcohol whether its in celebration or sorrow. Why should we send all of our tax revenue somewhere else when its an inevitable revenue.

— Michelle Anderson Matthews

Relaxing the liquor laws in Kyle will have nothing to do with DWI arrests. People who drink and drive will do so regardless of where they get their alcohol.

— Sarah Pennington Lyle

I have no aversion to folks drinking alcohol and having a good time. I just don't want the drunks driving down my street where kids still play, and they will. I don't want violent crimes to rise in our area because drunks will fight at the drop of a hat. You can't convince me that they won't. I lived in Austin for years and I moved away for many reasons, and one was the concurrent rise in drunk/ alcohol related arrest, violent crime, car accedents and murder. All so that the city could make a little more money and people could be free to drink how they wanted. I say no!

Candidates for Hays School Board

Eric John is also a candidate for the Hays School Board At Large position, but did not return a questionnaire

Doug Ragsdale

Office sought:
Hays CISD Board of Trustees – At Large position

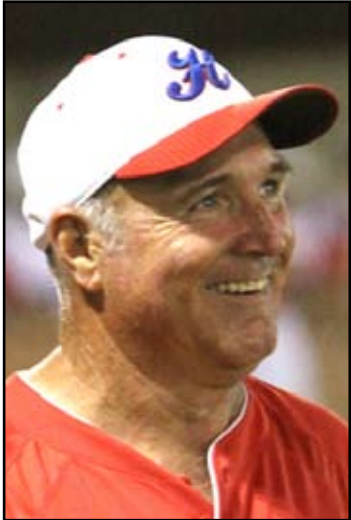

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
My 39 years as an educator in the public school system affords me a unique perspective from which to make decisions that affect the HCISD, a view from the student/teacher relationship. When deciding to run, it just made sense to me that a school board could benefit from an educator.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?

The #1 issue of education is developing a process that delivers the best possible product, which, for a school board should be the achievement levels of the students within the district. I believe that our classroom teachers possess a wealth of untapped ideas on how to best address that issue.

What is the last book you read?
"Heaven Is For Real"

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Dedicated

First vehicle:
I first owned a 1958 Chevrolet Apache Pickup that my dad and I bought for $200, repainted candy apple red, fixed the gearshift with a baseball bat, covered the seats with naugahide and drove off to college for four years. What a truck!!

Current job and prior public service:
Teacher/Coach at Hays High School – will retire June 1.

Education:
BA from Western New Mexico University; MA in guidance and counseling. 40 credit hours toward Administrative Certificate.

Family members:
Wife of 40 years, Cheryl , R.N.; son, Rick, 39; son, Ray 36; and daughter, Rene, 32, all graduates of Hays High School. Eight wonderful grandchildren, ages 4 to 11.

Years living in Hays County:
22

Holly Raymond

Office sought:
Hays CISD Board of Trustees – At Large position

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
Our board needs specific expertise to protect the limited resources we have and to influence others to get more of what our teachers and students need. Paired with lifelong ties to Hays, I have the operational and financial leadership background that makes me uniquely qualified for this position.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?

Growth. We're experiencing exciting growth in our district, but are doing so in a period of cuts from the capitol and competing priorities that makes maintaining our high standards ever more challenging. I'll work to put scalable solutions in place that protect our standing and build for the future.

What is the last book you read?
"The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Families," by Stephen Covey

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Loyal. My three best friends (fellow Hays graduates) have been part of my life for 20+ years. And loyal is what I feel towards Hays CISD, too. This district has played a central role in shaping me and I'm honored to give back in any way I can.

First vehicle:
As my parents emphasized "Made in the USA," my first car was a 1986 Black Chevy Blazer I nicknamed "The Blaze." It was a stick shift because my dad thought that everyone should learn how to "really drive." He was certainly happy for Coach Green to handle my driver's education however.

Current job and prior public service:
I currently serve as Vice President of Finance & Operations for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Texas. I also presently serve as treasurer for the Hays CISD Education Foundation, HYBA Basketball Coach, T-ball Team Mom, Girl Scout Cookie Mom, PTA member and classroom volunteer.

Education:
I began kindergarten at Buda Elementary with Ms. Beck and graduated from Jack C. Hays in 1996. I went directly to the University of Texas at Austin and earned a bachelor's degree in business and a master's degree in accounting after completing their #1 nationally-ranked Program in Professional Accounting.

Family members:
My husband, Jeff, and I live in Plum Creek with our three children: Madalyn (12) is a 6th-grader at Barton Middle School; Beck (8) is a 2nd-grader at Negley; and Bristol (6) is in Kinder at Negley. My parents, L.C. and Arlene Smith, still live in Niederwald.

Years living in Hays County: More than 30 years.

Bert Bronaugh

Office sought:
I am running for the Hays CISD Board of Trustees, District 3 seat.

My qualifications:
I am running for my second term in this position. I have attended every training session and conference available. I have four children, all of whom have been through Hays CISD, so I have a long history with the district, dating back to 1993. I have lived the Buda/Kyle area since 1991.

Number one issue affecting our community, my ideas:
The number one issue that I see with our community, as it pertains to the school district, is making sure that our children have the education that they need to succeed on their own. We have a wonderful teaching staff and administration, all of whom have weathered some severe changes lately, and we need to make sure that we, as a community, give them the support they need to continue preparing our children for their future.

The last book I read:
I love to read, although it's usually unabridged audio books lately, so that's an easy one, although it would probably be either "Anna Karenina," by Leo Tolstoy, or "Lost Empire," by Clive Custer.

An adjective that a friend would use to describe me:
'Friendly' would hopefully be the most used.

My first vehicle:
I worked on my grandparent's farm since I was 8 years old, and the year that I turned 16, I used all of my $1,200 earning to pay my grandfather $1,000 for a rebuilt 1971 International 1110 pickup. That truck took me to Texas A&M after I graduated high school. Wonderful question!

Current job, public service:
I work full time for the LCRA (8.5 years), and work part-time at Truck City Ford (21 years). I have worked with the Boy Scouts, primarily with Troop 128 (11 years), but also work with several packs and troops in the area. My family attends Faith Assembly of God, Buda, and have for 15+ years.

Education:
I graduated high school in Burnet, Texas, then attended Texas A&M and Bee County College. I attended North Lake College, where I earned an associate's degree in diesel technology. I earned the Senior Master Technician certification from Ford Motor Co. in 1999, and have retained it through 2012.

Family members:
My father is a Presbyterian minister in Schulenburg, where he and my mother now live. My family and I live in the Shadow Creek subdivision in Kyle. I have been married to my lovely wife, Vonda, for 27 years. We have four children, the older two of which are attending Texas A&M, College Station, and are, or were, both in the Fighting Texas Aggie Band. Bert III is 23, and will graduate on May 12. Brandon, 21, is about to be a senior. John, 16, will be a senior at Hays High School, and Lois, 14, is at Barton Middle School, and will be attending Hays High School this fall as a freshman.

Years in Hays:
My family moved into Buda in 1991, and managed a church camp while working at Truck City. We then moved to the Neiderwald area, still in Hays school district, and lived there until a few years ago. We ended up in Shadow Creek about three years ago.

Kyle Local Option Proposition

KEEPING $$ IN KYLE

"I am often asked by local residents why Kyle doesn't have more restaurant choices and entertainment venues. As Mayor, I am always striving to bring new commercial development to our city and I believe changing this law is the key to our future success. We live in a growing community, and our residents deserve to have a variety of local dining and entertainment options without having to drive to Austin or San Marcos. I'll be voting "FOR" on May 12th".

– Lucy Johnson, Mayor of Kyle

BALANCING THE PLAYING FIELD

"We are excited about this effort. Having served as a volunteer serving both Buda and Kyle, I have seen firsthand the limitations the current laws have placed on our ability to increase economic development initiatives. We believe Buda and Kyle's concerted effort is also important to compete with San Marcos and Austin for businesses. By voting "FOR" the Kyle Local Option Proposition, voters can increase economic development and additional businesses create more tax revenue, jobs and visitors to our area."

– Laurie Cromwell, Former Hays CISD Board President
Spokesman, Better Business for Hays Committee

MORE RESTAURANT CHOICES

"Kyle residents want more entertainment choices. With Seton Medical Center Hays (SMCH) and the new businesses coming to our area, we can attract more restaurants and venues for our citizens—and better compete with other cities on the I-35 corridor."

– Ray Hernandez, Executive Director, Kyle Area Chamber of Commerce

City of Kyle Residents... Why We Need to Support Local Kyle Restaurants & Retail.

Members of the Better Business for Hays Committee along with Kyle Mayor, Lucy Johnson, present petitions bearing the names of over 1800 Kyle registered voters calling for the election. Accepting the State required petitions on behalf of the City of Kyle is City Secretary, Amelia Sanchez.

Hays School Board continued

Robert Limon

Office sought:
Hays CISD School Board Trustee, District 3

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I feel that my 30 years of work experience, my education, and volunteer experience in the district give me a strong skill-set and perspective that will help our school board plan for the future. I come into this election with no other purpose than to serve the community to the best of my abilities.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community and what will you do to address it?
The budget will continue to be our biggest challenge. Our current board and administration have done a good job of minimizing the impact of the current funding cuts by the state. We'll need to continue to scrutinize every dollar we spend without sacrificing the quality of education. Decisions should always be data-driven and include input from all stakeholders in the community.

What is the last book you read?
I read "The Great Gatsby," again. It was assigned to my son Bobby in Ms. Espinoza's English class. I read it again so I could help him understand the book and prepare for his exam. Thirty years later, it was still a tough read.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Reliable

First vehicle:
It was a used 1976 primer-colored Chevy Monza that I bought from my Uncle Jesse. It only had half a back seat, one door that wouldn't open, and bald tires but had a stereo installed that was probably worth more than the car. I loved that car.

Current job and prior public service:
I'm currently a small business owner with 30 years of prior experience in the public and private sectors including the last 16 years in accounting, budget, and financial work for Austin Community College and the state of Texas. During that time, I also served as president of the Tom Green and Barton PTAs.

Education:
Graduate of S.F. Austin High School in Austin; associate degree in government,

Austin Community College, 1999; bachelor's of business administration, St. Edward's University, 2001, major: Business Management

Family members:
I'm married to Norma Limon, an employee for the State of Texas. I also have a daughter, Alyssa (20), a sophomore at the University of Texas at Austin and 2010 graduate of Hays High School, and a son, Bobby (17), a junior at Hays High School.

Years living in Hays County:
My family and I have lived in the Hays school district for 17 years, with 14 years in District 3, the district I'm running for in the election. My mother is part of the original Mendez family from Kyle, so we have deep roots in Hays County.

Candidates for Hays County Sheriff

Gary Cutler

Office sought:
Hays County Sheriff (incumbent)

Why are you the most qualified candidate?
I have 37.5 years law enforcement experience, 31 as a county employee holding ranks of jailer, deputy, investigator, Sgt., Lt., Capt. and an elected sheriff along with my team management style, education and proven ability to conservatively manage multimillion dollar budgets during our recent times of economic crisis.

What is the number one issue affecting our community and what will you do to address it?
Growth is the problem we face. Three out of 10 service calls are for traffic related issues. Through recent reorganization I have increased our Traffic Unit by 10 percent without cost to the taxpayers. I will find more ways to address this burgeoning problem within the agency or through Commissioner's Court.

What is the last book you read?
"Warlord," by Ilario Pantano

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
INTEGRITY

First vehicle:
I was almost eighteen in 1969 when I purchased my first car. I was a senior at Wilmer Hutchins H.S. just south of Dallas. The car was a gold 1965 2-door Chevrolet Malibu SS 327 with a four speed stick.

Current Job and prior public service:
I have been the elected Republican Sheriff of Hays County for the past 17 months. Prior public service includes 6 years service as a Special Investigator at the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, 3 years service at the Williamson County Sheriff's Office as Sgt. and Lt., 26.5 years at the Travis County Sheriff's Office as a jailer, deputy, investigator and captain.

Education:
I graduated from Sam Houston State University with a B.S. in criminal justice. I hold a Texas Commission of Law Enforcement Master Peace Officer's License and Instructor's License. I have attended several thousand hours of accredited in-service training through various state and local police academies.

Family members:
I have been married to my wife Carol, a dental hygienist, for almost 38 years. We have two adult sons, Travis and Trevor.

Years living in Hays County?
My wife and I have lived in Hays County for over 24 years.

Tommy Ratliff

Office sought: Sheriff, Hays County

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position? I have 35 years in law enforcement: 21 years as a Texas Ranger; 12 years as a State Trooper; and 2 years as Sheriff of Hays County.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it? I will have officers focus on finding drug dealers and investigating burglaries. I will also put a stop to frivolous spending of taxpayer dollars.

What is the last book you read?
"Lone Star Justice," by Robert Utley.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you? Integrity.

First vehicle: 1966 Chevrolet Impala 2-door.

Current job and prior public service:
Retired Texas Ranger / Mr. Mom

Education: Bachelor of Science from Texas State University, Master Peace Officer License , and Special Texas Ranger Commission.

Family members: Wife Carolina, daughter Victoria, and son Will Ratliff.

Years living in Hays County: 16 years.

Candidates for Hays County Commissioner, Pct. 1

Debbie Gonzales Ingalsbe

Office sought:
Hays County Commissioner Pct. 1 (incumbent)

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
My years of experience on the Commissioners Court and a proven commitment and willingness to work well with others to retain and bring quality jobs, improve our transportation infrastructure, diversify and protect our water resources and provide the services a fast growing county expects while maintaining a low tax rate.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?
Trying to name one issue is difficult since many issues tie so closely together. Water is at the top of the list. I will continue to work with our cities, water providers, groundwater district, legislators and others to ensure we work toward securing water resources needed today and the future.

What is the last book you read?
"Same Kind of Different as Me"

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Trustworthy

First vehicle:
I was working at our restaurant and my dad asked me to come outside where he surprised me with my first vehicle: It was a 2-door, maroon, 1978 Monte Carlo with white leather seats.

Current job and prior public service:
Hays County Commissioner Pct. 1. Working as a deputy constable for three years was a very rewarding public service opportunity. It helped me gain experience and a knowledge of county government and law enforcement which provided a good sense of guidance for the people I currently serve.

Education:
Attended classes at SWTSU, now Texas State. Received my Peace Officer's Certification from the Travis County Sheriff's Academy, and have over 780 hours of continuing education for county commissioner.

Family members:
Husband, Garry, and two children, Peggy and Robbie Rodriguez

Years living in Hays County:
51 years

Mary Gonzales

Office sought:
Hays County Commissioner, Precinct 1

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I have worked a majority of my life in the private sector. I have worked for nine corporations; four of which I worked in managing positions in retail, and three were in the manufacturing industry. A major portion of the revenue the government spends comes from the private sector.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community and what will you be doing to address it?
Since 2005, Hays County debt has grown from $32 million to over $300 million. I will commit to stop the unnecessary spending by influencing the court not to be pawns of powerful self-interest groups, such as engineering firms and developers who are ultimately managing our growth.

What is the last book you read?
I enjoy reading several different books on my Kindle Fire. I read everything from the Bible to "The Right Fights Back," by Mike Allen and Evan Thomas. I am currently reading "The Conscience of a Conservative," by Barry Goldwater.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
A close friend once told me that I am a passionate person. Once I find something I love, I use every aspect of my life to express that love. I have a great passion for politics and also for helping people.

First vehicle:
1972 Cutlass Supreme, with 350 HP

Current job and prior public service:
I am currently a manager of a reliable 100-year-old company. My prior public services were from 1993-94, I worked for an early childhood intervention state program as a clerk.

Education:
Attended Texas State for 2 years; computer accounting at Career Centers of Texas and have hundreds of hours of business management training

Family members:
I have been married 29 years to my husband, Mike. We have two sons: Lorenzo and Julian; and a daughter-in-law, Crystal. We also have two dogs named Star and Doggie Snarf. I am proud to say that I have my mother, Nasaria Gonzales (who is 97 years young), as well as my three brothers, Robert, Joe and Mario Gonzales.

Years living in Hays County:
I was born and raised in Hays County. I have volunteered hundreds of hours throughout my adult life supporting candidates which I have felt best represented the people of this community.

GOP County Chair Candidates

Shawn Blakeley is also a candidate for Hays County Republican Chair, but did not return a questionnaire

John Pacheco

Office sought: Chairman of the Hays County Republican Party. The chairman is a volunteer position, responsible for growing the GOP in Hays County and running the Republican primaries. Please see johnpacheco.com for why I am running, and what I'll do if elected.

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position? I have a long history of public service, starting with enlisted and then commissioned officer service in the Army. I also have had a long successful career in sales which is very relevant; there's nothing quite like calling total strangers and asking them for money to prepare you for politics.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it? This office does not address issues directly. My job would be to grow the Republican party: attract voters/volunteers, recruit candidates, raise money for campaigns. In other words, get people engaged in the political process. Most people drastically underestimate the influence that we ordinary citizens have on our community and country.

What is the last book you read? Can you please ask me what the second to last book I've read is? Because that was "God According to God," by Gerald Schroeder, which sounds so much more substantive than the last book I read, which is the "The Partner," by John Grisham.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you? I emailed my closest buddy Mark and asked. His response was: "I was going to say, 'my hero,' or 'near God-like,' or perhaps, 'effortlessly cool,' but of course none of those is just one word." (There is a very slight possibility he was being sarcastic.) Mark eventually settled on "focused."

First vehicle: A 1972 Ford Mustang Mach 1 Fastback, 351 Cleveland engine with dual headers. White with a blue stripe down the middle. Cornered like a hog on roller skates but did 0 to 60 in no time flat - YEAH BABY!

Current job and prior public service:
My wife and I own a compliance and IT consulting company. I am a precinct chairman (and former precinct chair in Travis County), volunteer in the Adult and Family Ministry in our church, volunteer with the North Hays Republican Group, member of the American Legion, VFW, and Knights of Columbus.

Education: BBA from UT/El Paso. Also, a few years ago my wife and I decided to pursue our MBA together to shake the cobwebs out a bit; we are about half way through.

Family members: My wife Suzanne and I have been married 21 years. My mom lives in El Paso, my dad passed away two years ago. I also have aunts, uncles, and cousins in San Fernando, CA.

Years living in Hays County: Sixteen. I grew up in El Paso, and by chance was assigned there for the last part of my Army career. We moved to Austin right after I got out in 1993, and moved out to Dripping in 96.

RAYMOND

"Holly will make an excellent board member. She is passionate in her support of our community and our schools. She brings common sense business acumen to board service, and an approach to service that is constructive and optimistic. Please join me in supporting her in her bid for election to the District At Large position."

Candidates for Pct. 2

Hays County Constable

Ron Hall

Office sought:
Hays County Constable Precinct 2

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?

I have a record of professional and personal service to my community. My experience has included developing and maintaining working relationships with other agencies and the community. I believe that my 19 years of law enforcement experience and training has prepared me for the growth that our community is experiencing.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?

Growth in our community. This growth brings about a change in the dynamics of the community. My similar experiences in Williamson County have taught me to be available to all members of the community and all other government agencies so that we can form a partnership and be involved in our community's future.

What is the last book you read?
"Constructing Effective Criticism," by Randy Garner, Ph.D.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Professional

First vehicle:
A 1977 Datsun B210 with 176,000 miles, drove it for 4 years.

Current job and prior public service:
Currently serve as the Chief of Police for the city of Bertram, former Sergeant Investigator with the Office of the Attorney General's Cyber Crime Unit and as a Sergeant with the Williamson County Sheriff's Office, supervising various units.

Education:

Family members:
Married to Deborah Hall, adult son Cody serving in the U.S. Army, daughter, Cassidy and sons, Corey and Thomas attend Lehman High School, daughters, Alyssa and Jenavi attend Wallace Middle School, sons, Casey and Jonathan attend Tobias Elementary School with daughter, Laci. All of the children are involved in extra curricular activities.

Years living in Hays County: 5 years

James Kohler

Office sought: Hays County Constable Precinct 2 (incumbent)

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
34 years as constable, elected nine times.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it? More people, (addressed by) getting another office.

What is the last book you read? I don't read.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you? I don't know – I guess wonderful and loving.

First vehicle: '40 Ford

Current job and prior public service: Constable 34 years and three years in the Army.

Education: I don't remember back that far.

Family members: Everybody in Hays County.

Years living in Hays County: Since 1962.

Guy Irwin

Office sought:
Hays County Constable Precinct 2

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I believe the residents of Kyle deserve, and expect, that their constable will put the full effort of his time and knowledge into performing the best job possible. Our area deserves a hard-working, enthusiastic and honest individual in this office and I believe that I am that person. I am excited at the prospect of serving this community I call home.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?
The No. 1 issue is the potential for criminal enterprises. I would require the deputies, and myself, to take field training in preparation for criminal offenses, not just Civil Process training. The time to be trained and proficient is now, not after an event takes place. Action beats re-action and being proactive and vigilant should be hallmarks of any law enforcement agency.

What is the last book you read?
"Criminal Investigation" (10th edition) by Swanson, Chamelin, Territo and Taylor

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Driven

First vehicle:
1957 Willy's Jeep pickup. It sounded like a sewing machine when we turned it over in subzero weather and it was capable of going nearly anywhere. I installed an overdrive gear myself so we could more easily traverse highways. It was a work of art and a joy to drive.

Current job and prior public service:
Business owner and served in the U.S. Coast Guard during the Vietnam War.

Education:
Professional/vocational degrees and undergraduate degrees. I secured a bachelor's of science degree in criminal justice administration in 2010 for the express purpose of running for the Hays County Precinct 2 Constable's office. I graduated with honors and am a member of the National Criminal Justice Honor Society. I am currently enrolled in the Law Enforcement Certification program, under G.W. Hildebrand, at Austin Community College.

Family members:
One daughter. She is a legislative director at the Texas Capitol. I have five sisters and my mother resides in South Austin. My baby brother was killed in an accident in 1992, he was a Deputy Constable in South Austin.

Years living in Hays County:

Candidates for 22nd Judicial District Judge

Ronnie Dickens

Office sought:
22nd Judicial District Judge, covering Hays, Comal and Caldwell counties.

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I am the only candidate practicing in Texas District Courts for 30 years – also other states and Texas federal courts. Have tried numerous jury trials in family law (with child custody at issue), criminal defense law (including murder), civil trial lawsuits (recovering more than $1 million). I have never been an “assistant” attorney.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?
No doubt, it is the drug problem, which hurts people and causes more crimes to occur. A qualified and experienced judge is also needed to hear family, civil and serious criminal cases. After 30 years trying cases, in all areas of district court law, I am the most qualified to serve immediately.

What is the last book you read?
“The Confession,” by John Grisham.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Dependable

First vehicle:
1961 Chevrolet Bel Air, with 6 cylinder, replaced by a custom-built Chevrolet 348 Big Block 250 horse power V8 engine.

Current job and prior public service:
Attorney and owner, The Dickens Law Firm, general trial practice for 30 years; First United Methodist Church, Optimist Club member, Rotary Club member, board member of Foster’s Home for Children, member of Stephenville Airport Board, Toys for Tots, recent vice-chairman of San Marcos Airport Commission. Member of State Bar of Texas Jury Question Revision Committee.

Education:
Graduated from Teague High School, Teague, Texas; B.A. from Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos and South Texas College of Law, in Houston.

Family members:
Wife, Pam Dickens, head pharmacist for the large HEB in San Marcos. Daughter, Amanda, Manager of Global Sales for Softlayer. Com in Dallas. Daughter, Emily, new law school graduate in Fort Worth. Son-in-law, Chris, banker for Regions Bank. Son-in-law, Bill, basketball/football coach at Burleson High School.

Years living in Hays County:
Moved to San Marcos in 1970 for college, got married in 1972. We have lived in San Marcos several times over the years – we came back home eight years ago. We relocated some because of work, but we have had strong connections to Hays County and the Texas Hill Country for 42 years. Pam and I, and our two daughters and their husbands, all graduated from Southwest Texas State University/ Texas State University in San Marcos/Hays County.

Bruce Boyer

Office sought:
22nd Judicial District Judge, Hays, Comal and Caldwell counties

Why are you the most qualified candidate?
I have been a practicing attorney in Comal and surrounding counties for 35 years. I am a 22+ year prosecutor. As a small businessman, volunteer and community leader, and a six year mayor of New Braunfels I have demonstrated the temperament, fairness and common sense necessary to be a good judge.

What is the number one issue affecting our community and what will you do to address it?
Safety of our citizens and their property is most important; particularly that of our children who are the victims of abuse and are the most affected by divorce. I will always put justice for victims first. In divorce and custody cases I will always put the children's interests first.

What is the last book you read?
“Team of Rivals: The Political Genius of Abraham Lincoln”

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Honest

First vehicle:
A 1972 Mercury Montego previously owned by a firefighter

Current Job and prior public service:
Attorney and business owner. Prior public office: mayor of New Braunfels, 2005-2011. 35 years of community service with many organizations and my church.

Education:
University of Nebraska, B.A., 1973; Southern Methodist University, J.D., 1977; master’s of public administration, 1977

Family:
Wife: Toya Ohlrich Boyer. Daughters: Casey Cox, Shelley Minus, Rachel Boyer. 5 grandchildren

Years living in Comal County:
I have lived in Comal County for 35 years

REPUBLICAN
DAVID
NIGH

FOR 22ND DISTRICT COURT

Paid Pol. Adv. by David Nigh; Treasurer, John Nigh

David Glickler

Office sought:
22nd Judicial District Judge, covering Hays, Comal and Caldwell counties.

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I am the only candidate who has practiced in court-rooms daily. Over 80 percent of the daily duties of district judge is handling the criminal docket, and only I am board certified in criminal law, meaning I have the extra experience, training and education required in the field of criminal law.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do to address it?
As for district courts, it is access to the courtroom. I will make sure, by working with lawyers and prosecutors, that all cases can be heard. I will be completely accessible to all citizens who need the courts for their civil, family or criminal cases to proceed.

What is the last book you read?
“Biography of Benjamin Franklin,” and working on “John Adams,” by David McCullough.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
Intense

First vehicle:
A 1978 Toyota Celica. Paid almost as much to fix it up as I did to get it, and sadly, I crashed it on an ice-slicked road less than 2 months after I got it on the road!

Current job and prior public service:
Currently, Deputy Division Chief and Assistant Attorney General under Greg Abbott, supervising the White Collar Crime and Public Integrity Section of the Criminal Prosecutions Division. Previously, I was an assistant county attorney in Williamson County under the late Eugene D. Taylor. Before that, I was a briefing attorney at the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Education:
B.A. in political science from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J. Juris Doctor from SMU School of Law in Dallas, TX.

Family members:
Wife, Holly, a native Austinite and UT grad. Daughter, Morgan, son, Austin.

Years living in Hays County: 10+

David L. Nigh

Office sought:
Judge, 22nd District Court.

Why are you the most qualified candidate for this position?
I am the most experienced and best qualified candidate. My education in business at Texas A&M, and 29-year-career in civil and criminal litigation exhibit these qualifications. I moved to New Braunfels in 1992. Cases include family law, divorce, custody, adoption, juveniles, CPS, criminal defense, estate and real estate.

What is the No. 1 issue affecting our community, and what will you do it address it?
The number one issue affecting our communities is the dealing and use of illegal drugs, including alcohol abuse. Habitual drunken drivers must be taken off our roads. Because drugs cost money, criminals commit burglaries, thefts, robberies and other crimes. I pledge to punish all violent criminals severely.

What is the last book you read?
“Making Marriage Work,” by Joyce Meyer.

What adjective would a close friend use to describe you?
She would say that I’m a “man’s man,” and that I enjoy basketball, golf, hunting and fishing. She would say I am honest, conservative, a gun collector, loyal, generous and kind.

First vehicle:
It was a 1962 Ford Falcon my dad purchased in 1970. I promptly installed an 8-track player in the glove box, and speakers in the trunk.

Current job and prior public service:
My current job in New Braunfels is the practice of criminal law and family law, including divorce, adoption and child custody. I constantly deal with Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Amendment issues. I spend an average of eight out of 22 working days a month in the courtroom.

Education:
Texas A&M University (cum/laude) 1976, and South Texas College of Law in Houston, J.D. 1980.

Family members:
Mother, Lois Nigh in Houston; brother, Dan Nigh in Harper, Texas; and brother, John Nigh in Fredericksburg, Texas. We all became Texans in 1963.

Years living in Hays County:
I am running in Hays, Comal, and Caldwell (District 22) counties . I have lived in New Braunfels since 1992.

League of Women Voters hosts candidates forum May 7

The San Marcos Area League of Women Voters is hosting a primary debate from 7-9 p.m. Monday, May 7 at the San Marcos Activity Center. According to the League's Voter Services Chair Grace Melcher-

Neal, a forum format will be used for the highly contested Republican primary races in Congressional Districts 21, 25 and 35 and State Senate District 25, as well as the contested Democratic races for State Representative Districts 21 and 35, due to the number of candidates who filed for those positions. Candidates for contested local Hays County races will be invited to debate.

Propositions on the Democratic and Republican Primary ballots

Democratic Propositions

IN-STATE TUITION: Any graduate of a Texas high school, who has lived in the state for at least three years and lived here continuously for the last year, should be eligible for in-state tuition at state supported colleges and universities and given the opportunity to earn legal status through a higher education or military service.

FUND TEXAS COLLEGES: "Because a college education is increasingly necessary for jobs that allow our citizens to achieve middle class lifestyles and become the entrepreneurs who create the jobs that our economy relies on, we call on the Texas Legislature to fund colleges and universities such that tuition and fees can be affordable to all Texans."

CASINO GAMBLING: Should the Texas Legislature allow the people of Texas to vote to legalize casino gambling with all funds generated being used only for education?

Republican Propositions

SCHOOL CHOICE: The state should fund education by allowing dollars to follow the child instead of the bureaucracy, through a program which allows parents the freedom to choose their child's school, public or private, while also saving significant taxpayer dollars.

REPEALING OBAMACARE: Congress should immediately repeal the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (otherwise known as Obamacare) and reject the rationing of healthcare by government or the intrusion by government into the doctor - patient relationship.

PUBLIC PRAYER: Government should be prohibited from restricting the content of public prayer.

BALANCED BUDGET / CONTROLLING GOVERNMENT GROWTH: Out of control spending should be stopped at all levels of federal and state government through constitutional amendments limiting any increase in government spending to the combined increase of population and inflation, requiring voter approval.

Redistricting The Texas Legislature should redraw the court-imposed lines for Congress and State legislative districts in its upcoming session in order to remedy inequities.
